ORDER

On August 1, 2008, United States Chief Magistrate Judge James C. England recommended that this Court (1) enter an order finding the Defendant incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense, (2) commit the Defendant to the custody of the Attorney General pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241(d)(1), for a reasonable period of time, not to exceed four months. The parties have filed no objections. After a de novo review of the record, the Court is convinced that the recommendations of the Chief Magistrate are correct and should be adopted.

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED that the Chief Magistrate's Report and Recommendation [Doc. # 59] is ADOPTED. It is further

ORDERED that prior to the expiration of the four-month period, the Court shall be advised whether: there is a substantial probability that in the foreseeable future Defendant will attain the capacity to permit the trial to proceed; or that the pending charges against him have been disposed of according to law.
